Music Informance

Our class invites you to a Music informance on April 22nd from 2:05-2:35 in the music room. An informance is bit less formal than a concert. It demonstrates their performance abilities while also sharing parts of the music curriculum. I will record the informance and share the video if you are unable to attend.

A Peek at the Week of March 23RD

- Math: story problems for addition and subtraction
- Reading: nonfiction text features
- Social Studies: Me on the Map
- Writing: spring break news, information on a topic researched from a nonfiction book
